

mund.ART

QUINTETT WIEN

RAINER KÜBLBÖCK (Trumpet)

Born 1967 in Vienna, started learning trumpet with his father in 1976. Studied from 1980 at the Conservatory of Vienna with Prof. Schober, later on at the University of Music with Prof. Carole D. Reinhart, and finally at the Bruckner Conservatory in Linz with Prof. Eidenberger. In 1985 he was engaged as 2. Trumpeter in the Bruckner Orchestra Linz. In 1989 he joined the ORF-Symphony Orchestra as 1. Trumpeter. Since 1996 he has been the Solo Trumpeter in the Vienna Symphony Orchestra.

ALFRED GAAL (Trumpet)

Born 1964 in Sommerein/Leithagebirge, studied at the Prayner Conservatory with Prof. Seidl and received his first engagement at the Kur-Orchestra Baden in 1985. In 1986 he began studies with Prof. Pomberger at the "Wiener Musikakademie" and received his Diploma cum laude. In 1987 he was engaged by the "Vereinigten Bühnen" Wien. He now plays as a substitute for the Vienna Philharmony Orchestra and Vienna Symphony Orchestra. He also plays as Soloist with the "Wiener Kammerorchester" and the "Wiener Mozartorchester". Since 1988 he has been Trumpeter of the "Bühnenorchester der Wiener Staatsoper".

ANDREJ KASIJAN (Horn)

Born 1963 in Kischinof (former USSR), studied until 1981 at the Music-School in Kischinof with Velichko Vasilij Ivanovich and received a Diploma at the Broadcast Competition "Konzertino-Praga" 1981. In the Years 1981 to 1984 he studied at the Leningrad Conservatory with Prof. Vitalij Bujanovskij. During this period he was engaged by the Stage Orchestra of the Kirov-Theatre and was a regular substitute for the Leningrad Philharmonies. In 1984 he continued his studies at the Music High school in Graz with Prof. Robert Freund where he received his Diploma cum laude in 1988. Later he took private lessons with Hector McDonald. Since 1988 he has played as Soloist with the "Vereinigten Bühnen Wien".

WALTER VOGLMAYR (Trombone)

Born 1973 in Ried im Innkreis (Austria), started studying at the "Linzer Bruckner" Conservatory with Prof. Loimayr in 1986, then at the Music Highschool in Vienna with Prof. Küblböck in 1988 and then changed to Freiburg im Breisgau in 1993 to Branimir Slokar where he received his Diploma in 1997. He has had Solo appearances with the "Wiener Kammerorchester", l'Ensemble Instrumental de la Musique de Toulon, and many others. In 1996 he received a contract as a substitute for lead trombone with the "Bayerischen Staatsoper München" and in 1997 he was engaged by the Broadcast Symphony Orchestra Berlin as Solo Trombonist. Since January 2000 he has been Solo Trombonist in the Vienna Symphony Orchestra and member of both ensembles Pro Brass and mund.ART Quintett Wien.

ALEXANDER RINDBERGER (Tuba)

Born 1971 in Salzburg, studied at the Mozarteum in Salzburg with Prof. Hoppert where he received his Diploma cum laude in 1997. He continued studies in Vienna with Prof. Schafferer. In 1995 and 1996 he was a member of the "Münchner Orchesterakademie" and had part time contracts in the "Bayerischen Staatsoper München" and the National Theatre Mannheim from 1995 to 1997. He was multiple winner of the "Jugend musiziert" competition and the "Premio di musica Cesare Grigoletto" (Italy) in 1998. Apart from being active as a Theatre Musician and Teacher he is also a welcomed guest in renowned Viennese Orchestras, Brass Formations and the "Klangforum Wien". Since May 2000 he has been engaged by the "Wiener Burgtheater".